

Helping Build Better Homes in 2007

The Knoxville Church of Christ is conducting a four day series of talks, open to the community, focused upon the ways in which you can build a better home life for yourself and your family. Jimmie Keas of Salina, Kansas will be conducting the series. Jimmie's wife Janet will also be in attendance. They have been married for almost 43 years and have four children and six grandchildren. Jimmie has preached and taught in churches in Oklahoma and Kansas for almost 43 years. He has held meetings and seminars across the Midwest.
